USD 109 is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

The Republic County Conservation District is accepting applications for a full time District Manager.

Qualifications include a high school diploma or GED, computer skills, and the ability to communicate effectively.

This position will require someone with excellent organization skills, an optimistic attitude, drive, and willingness to try new things, and some knowledge of agricultural practices. Basic QuickBooks, Microsoft Office, and accounting skills are not required, but will be beneficial. While this is primarily an office job consisting of secretarial duties, there are times the District Manager will have to go out for field visits or host outdoor educational events.

Duties consist of administration of Conservation activities including conservation programs, educational programs, general office and financial management, and provide clerical assistance to the Natural Resource Conservation Services personnel. Wages are based on ability and experience. Benefites include: KPERS, monthly health insurance stipend, paid time off and sick leave, and all Federal Holidays off.

Application forms are available at the Republic County Conservation District, 1319 23rd St. Belleville, KS. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. The Republic County Conservation District is an equal opportunity employer.
