

Local Riders

Belleville residents from left: Sandee Swanson, Don Waddington and Lori Rhine competed in the BAK race last week. The riders, shown in Sabetha, were among the more than 500 competing in this year’s event. Riders made a lunch stop-over in Belleville on Friday. More pictures can be found in this week’s online edition of the Telescope.

Chamber Office
Open Full Time

The office of The Belleville Chamber of Commerce and Main Street is now open full time. Chamber Director Molly Springer made the announcement earlier this week. She had previously staffed the office on a part time basis. Office hours will now be: Monday through Thursday 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Fridays 8 a.m. to noon. Springer said people can also call 785-527-5524 and leave a message.

Contest In
PV Board Race

Republic County Clerk Kathleen Marsicek said that after a review of candidate filings for the 2025 General Election, a race exists for USD 426 board position #1. John Garman, the incumbent, and Harley Schaub are both filed for Position #1, and Jack Thompson for Position #3. No candidates are filed for Position #2. Troy Carlgren currently holds the office, but did not file for re-election.
