holiness involves reflecting our faith through our attitudes, words, and actions wherever we are. We will be celebrating the sacrament of Holy Communion during the service. The United Methodist Church practices open Communion, welcoming all to the table of Christ.

Rose Valley Church

After reciting the Apostles Creed, Rev. Wyatt continued his series of teaching on the gospel story portion of the Creed . Rev. Wyatt began with questions for us to ponder. “For what reason or purpose has God redeemed us?” There is a reason or purpose.

“Why did Jesus have to die?” Because we have all sinned and fall short. God made us right and forgave our sins through Jesus . In Exodus, of the old testament, lambs were slain for the atonement of sins. As we focus on Jesus's Victory over death in the New Testament: 1 Corinthians 15:56-58- death is swallowed up, Collosians 2: 13-15”God made you alive with Christ”, and Romans 8:37, to name a few. This story is not over !

In our lives the cross is worn, displayed and revered as a symbol of Jesus's victory over death. The cross was not always a symbol of victory. The cross was a symbol of a place of suffering, humiliation and death. Jesus suffered and died. When he and rose again on the 3rd day, the cross took on a new meaning. A symbol of victory as he overcome death and shame.

Jesus suffered for each of us! By his wounds and death we are healed. God
