Cards of Thanks

WE WOULD LIKE to thank everyone for the many acts of kindness at the time of the passing of our beloved Jill Chaffain Brozek. The cards, flowers, food, donations to her scholarship fund and prayers were so thoughtful and much appreciated. Thanks also to VanArsdale Funeral Home for their service and to the ladies of the Hartford Community for the lunch. Jill touched many lives and we are also touched by all the thoughtfulness as we remember her.

History

Continued from Page A5 Kelley Park. Rev. Arloe Snodgrass of the Burlington Christian Church was the speaker and his short talk vas well received He urged 125 years ago (1900) ► It is not generally known that there was a strike in Burlington last week, but there was. In fact, there were two strikes. Four of the men who had been working at the tile factory struck for higher wages and were told to strike the road. They struck. Other men were found in half an hour and their places filled. ► We presume the face of the farmer is long the other way now, as the sun has shone for two days and no rain for three. ► There is some talk in Halls Summit of building an auditorium since the hall was so dangerous and condemned the night of the exhibition.

his hearers to give more thought to their freedom so won at such sacrifice.

► Some early risers in this community noticed the red glare in the northeastern sky Monday morning early during the thunderstorm. The glare was from the fire and explosion in the Panhandle Eastern gas pipe line near Williamsburg. The glare from the flames was visible as much as 60 miles. The pipeline runs through Coffey County.

➤ The Burlington baseball team defeated Iola at Iola Sunday in a thrilling 14-inning game, 9 to 7.

► A man was arrested at Chanute for deserting his wife and nine children. five of whom were minors. pleaded guilty yesterday in the Coffey County District Court, and was sentenced to serve not to exceed two years at Lansing, and was then paroled on condition that he pay $5 to the district court clerk each week for the support of his wife and minor children, with the understanding that just as soon as the payments for his family stopped, the parole would be revoked and he would be taken to the penitentiary at Lansing. ($5 in 1925 is equivalent to about $91 today)

▶ Miss Elma Grose, a senior in the class of 1925 in Burlington High School has made a splendid record of being neither absent nor tardy for ten years, having gone six years to the country school and drove four miles all four years to high school. ► The murdered body of Mrs. John (Florence) Knoblock was found in her home west of Burlington. (The book Shadow on the Hill: The True Story of a 1925 Kansas Murder was based on this unsolved murder.)

150 years ago (1875)

► William Crotty, of Coffey County, wintered 300 head of stock on the range without loss.

► Warren Crandall, of Turkey Creek, has put in 400 acres of crops, and has three hundred acres rented out in crops, besides. He plowed and sowed a field of eighty acres to Hungarian grass in three days.

► Coffey County farmers carry quart bottles of whisky in their coat pockets for remedy in case of snake bites.

160 years ago (1865)

► Burlington does not make much of a show for a town in the way of houses, but there are but few towns in Southern Kansas wherein more business is conducted. We believe we have more machinery than any other town in Southern Kansas.

► Don't fail to attend the school meeting on Wednesday evening next. It is essential that every voter in this school district should be present. Measures will be taken there to raise the means to complete our schoolhouse. We must not let this enterprise drag any longer. We are able to finish the structure according to the designs established, and do it this season. It must be done!
