HCVB recognizes Wilde Tool as July's Member of the Month

KRIS MILLER
Hiawatha World

Wilde Tool was recog- nized by Hiawatha Chamber & Visitors Bureau as July's Member of the Month. Wilde Tool had been around for 104 years, with 70 years being in Hiawatha; the company was moved to Hiawatha in 1955 and was one of the first facto- ries to appear in Hiawatha. The company manufac- tures hand tools, pliers, pry bars, punches, scrapers, screwdrivers and more. The company originally began in Kansas City, and was started by brothers Paul and Otto Froeschl. The third and fourth generation of the founders continue to pro- duce hand tools. Wilde Tool President Andrew Froeschl was happy to learn about being recog- nized and said, "Hopefully, we're here for another 50- 100 years!" Wilde Tool is located at 1210 Pottawatomie Street. Readers can call 785-742-7171 for more information or send an email to sales@wildetool. com. Readers can also visit Wilde Tool's Facebook page or visit its website at https:// wildetool.com/.
