School band will perform next to the main stage at 7 p.m. The live music for the evening is the Alfred Packer Memorial String Band, which starts at 7:30 p.m.

Friday

Continuing on Friday, the fair offers many races – the bicycle races beginning at 10 a.m., running and bag races immediately following along with other field activities. The tractor pulls, including off-farm tractors and antique tractors — will also start at 4 p.m.

For more information on the age groups for the children competing in each event, visit the Vinland Fair website.

Boys and girls compete together for each race and competition in the age 5 and under category, while other age groups compete separately.

There will also be live music starting at 7:30 p.m., featuring the BoDells.

Saturday

The final day of the fair will have a pedal tractor pull at 2:30 p.m., lawn tractor pull at 5 p.m., livestock shows, an ice cream contest and more.

Children under 12 can enter the box turtle race, where turtles are placed in a circle on stage and the first to cross the line wins.

The race begins at 11 a.m., with registration starting at 10 a.m.

The pet parade also starts at 11 a.m., and children under 12 can enter pets or toys by 10 a.m. Categories include most unusual pet, prettiest rabbit, cutest puppy, prettiest mature dog, prettiest kitten in a basket, prettiest mature cat, best decorated stuffed animal, decorated doll carriage or wagon, and more.

The homemade ice cream contest begins freezing at 5 p.m., and all entries must be submitted by then. Judging starts at 7 p.m., and the ice cream will be served at 7:30 p.m. for \ $1 per two scoops.

Contestants must bring a pre-made base, mix-ins or ingredients, and either a hand-crank or electric ice cream freezer. For official rules, visit the Vinland Fair website.

Live music will be Double Take, and it starts at 7:30 p.m.
