PETS OF THE WEEK

Hufflepuff — ID 60543166
 Hufflepuff is a beautiful tortie with a soft heart and a gentle soul, just waiting for the right person to give her the time she deserves. Once she feels safe, her sweetness shines through in quiet affection and loyal companionship. She would thrive in a calm, peaceful home without other cats or dogs, where patience is met with trust and love. If you're looking for a tender, devoted companion who will slowly but deeply bond with you, Hufflepuff is ready to share her heart.

Cytopoint — ID 60543251
 Cytopoint is a sweet, soft-hearted 5-year-old Great Dane whose gentle nature perfectly balances playful joy. She loves affection, enjoys romping with toys and friends, and then happily settles in for peaceful cuddle time... especially on a comfy spot of her own. With her friendly temperament and calm confidence, Cytopoint would flourish in a home that understands giant-breed love: room to stretch out, steady routines, and plenty of affection. If you're seeking a big heart in a big body, Cytopoint is ready to be your loyal companion.

Mittens — ID 59996958
 Mittens is a laid-back five-year-old who has perfected the art of relaxation. When she's not enjoying a cozy cat nap, she loves perching by a window and quietly watching the world go by. Calm and sweet, Mittens is open to living with other mellow cats and would do well with gentle, older children who respect her peaceful vibe. She's the ideal companion for someone who appreciates quiet moments and soft company. If your home could use a serene, affectionate presence, Mittens is ready to curl up and settle in.

Boy — ID 52888626
 Boy is a calm, affectionate three-year-old pit mix who finds his greatest joy simply being near his people. With a gentle soul and an easygoing nature, he loves attention, relaxed walks, and quiet time spent together. Boy is happiest when he's soaking up love and companionship, making him a wonderful match for someone seeking a loyal, steady presence. He does best in a cat-free home where he can fully relax and be himself. If you're looking for a devoted, loving companion, Boy is ready to give his whole heart.
